

NOTICE OF REVOCATION

Case No. 92-169-JC

Timothy M. Mucciante, P-36805, Detroit, Michigan, by the Attorney Discipline Board modifying the effective date of a hearing panel order of revocation.

- 1) Revocation;
- 2) Effective June 5, 1992.

Respondent was convicted in the United States District Court, Southern District of New York, by jury verdict, of fifteen felony counts as follows: four counts of Uttering Counterfeit Foreign Bonds in violation of 18 USC 479 and Aiding and Abetting in violation of 18 USC 2; nine counts of Fraud by Interstate Wire Communication in violation of 18 USC 1343 and Aiding and Abetting in violation of 18 USC 2; and two counts of Transportation of Securities and Money Taken by Fraud in violation of 18 USC 2314.

In accordance with MCR 9.120(B)(1), respondent's license to practice law in Michigan was automatically suspended on June 5, 1992, the date of the felony conviction. Upon the filing of the judgment of conviction, the Attorney Discipline Board entered an order directing respondent to show cause why a final order of discipline should not be entered. Following show cause proceedings, Tri-County Hearing Panel #14 entered an order revoking respondent's license effective February 25, 1993, the date of the Judgment in a Criminal Case, United States District Court, Southern District of New York.

Respondent filed a petition for review. Following review proceedings, the Board entered an Order of Remand. The parties subsequently filed a stipulation cancelling the remand proceedings, and respondent requested that the matter be reviewed by the Board on the sole issue of the effective date of the revocation. On September 20, 1994, the Board entered an Order Modifying Order of Revocation as to Effective Date.

Costs were assessed in the amount of $209.56.
