NOTICE OF INTERIM SUSPENSION

File No. DP-81/80
Related: 333/80

R. WAYNE MILLER (P17778), former business address: 10440 N. 32nd St., Phoenix, AZ 85028, by the Attorney Discipline Board pursuant to a Complaint for Interim Suspension filed by the Grievance Administrator.

- (1) Interim Suspension (period indefinite);
- (2) Effective October 3, 1980.

The Grievance Administrator filed a Complaint for Interim Suspension charging that Respondent was licensed to practice in Michigan on or about January, 1967, that he had been suspended for a period of six months by a Panel of the former State Bar Grievance Board effective June 22, 1978, and has not filed a Petition for Reinstatement, that on July 18, 1979, Respondent's license to practice was suspended for an additional ninety (90) days and no action for automatic reinstatement therefrom has been taken. The Complaint also charged that Respondent was sentenced by the Maricopa County Superior Court (Arizona) to serve a term of not less than nine years nor more than ten years for grand theft by false representation and perjury (two counts) and that Respondent was disbarred from the practice of law in the State of Arizona. The Grievance Administrator's Complaint sought Interim Suspension despite Respondent's inability to appear for adjudication of the matter pursuant to GCR 953 and 969.1.
